This whole argument falls apart in the face of one simple fact Studies have shown that towers _don't_ lower adjacent property values.

No, it isn't; it's just the camel's nose in the tent. Kinda like banning those nasty, baby-killing, satanist, eeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeevil "assault" weapons.

Because my radio can protect me neither from the burglar in my house nor a government run amok. My pistol can do both.
